Request for Proposals – AOA Research Conference

The Council on Research has issued a Call for Proposals to all parties interested in serving as the Scientific Program Chair or Co-Chairs for the 2012 AOA Research Conference, to be held in conjunction with OMED 2012, the AOA's Annual Osteopathic Medical Conference & Exposition in San Diego, Calif., from Oct 7-11, 2012.

THE SUBMISSION DEADLINE FOR PROPOSALS IS FEB. 28, 2011.

The Program Chair is responsible for the development of a program theme that is of interest to both clinicians and basic scientists and which includes topics related to the tenets of osteopathic medicine. The Council encourages collaboration between PhD research scientists and DO researchers and clinicians as members of the planning committee. Please see the criteria<<http://www.mmsend53.com/link.cfm?r=216843468&sid=11683008&m=1187439&u=Osteopathi&s=http://www.osteopathic.org/inside-aoa/events/annual-aoa-research-conference/Pages/research-conference-criteria.aspx>> for detailed instructions on submitting your proposal.

EXAMPLES OF PREVIOUS PROGRAM TOPICS INCLUDE: Manual Medicine, Evidence-Based OMT, Complimentary and Alternative Medicine, Environment and Health, Aging, Immune Disorders, Pain Management, and Nutrition, Chronic Disorders of Aging in the 21st Century, New Insights and Approaches, The Translation of Genomic Science into Osteopathic Clinical Practice and Research, and Emerging Research Themes for Osteopathic Clinicians and Scientists in the Early 21st Century.
